More information on our event LAND FUTURES!

The event is taking place on Saturday 7th October | 10am – 6pm at Monkton Wyld Court, Elsdon's Lane, Charmouth, Bridport, Dorset, DT6 6DQ.

Here are a few guidelines for the day....

Tickets

£25. Advance tickets only. Please book here... and bring your Billetto ticket along to gain access to the event.

Arrival

We ask you to arrive at 09:30am for registrations and refreshments so the event can start at 10am.

If you are coming by public transport the nearest train station is Axminster, 4 miles away served direct by London Waterloo - Exeter St Davids mainline. Book tickets now for the best prices on tickets! We can arrange pick-up from the station if you notify us in advance. Please email contact@landbase.org.uk.

We encourage car sharing or take a train. If your car is not full and you are willing to collect people from Axminster station then please let us know beforehand.

Trains arrive from London at 08.20 and 09.44, and on the hour from Exeter on the day.

For train information go to: <https://www.southwesternrailway.com/>

Meals

Lunch will be provided by Monkton Wyld, please let us know in advance if you have any special dietary requirements or allergies. There will also be tea & coffee and cake in the afternoon.

Workshops

The day will offer workshops from keynote speakers in the UK. Please download the programme on our website here: <http://land-base.weebly.com/events.html>. You can choose up to two key workshops during the day and to make this part of the day run smoothly please have in your mind in which workshops you wish to participate.

Evening Performance of 3 Acres and a cow

The skill share event finishes at 6pm prompt to allow for a light supper (see below) before the evening performance at 7pm of 3 Acres and a Cow: a history of land rights and folk song.

Tickets can be booked separately online in advance £10. Sorry but we are unable to offer booking on the day. To book tickets click here...
